EY Law

EY Law - Private Wealth provides bespoke advice and integrated solutions for family businesses, their owners and HNWI. As such we advise the owner, follow the capital and serve the enterprise. EY Law - Private Wealth assists in governing family assets and private estate from a tax and legal perspective. We support wealth and family business owners to have successful wealth transitions through a process-driven approach to develop and implement a comprehensive plan based on, and supported by, the vision, goals and objectives of the owner and the family and future generations. Our process considers external family factors (financial security, governance, next generation and family changes) and business factors (control and risk, liquidity, and performance) that influence a plan and are important to understand and consider.

EY Law - Private Wealth advises clients on all aspects of family property law and asset planning (matrimonial property law, gifts, private international law, gift and inheritance taxes, income taxes) and this not only in Belgium (on federal and regional level) but also in an international context through the global EY and EY Law network.

Your responsibilities & activities

- As Senior Private Estate lawyer you will be part of a team of enthusiastic lawyers and will offer owners of family businesses and HNWI a total solution in the field of estate planning.
